FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Foodbank Welcomes Five Distinguished Board Members to Advance Hunger Relief Efforts

NORFOLK, VA | September 22, 2023 – The Foodbank of Southeastern Virginia and the Eastern Shore is thrilled to announce the appointment of five new board members, each bringing a wealth of experience and commitment to the organization's mission of ending hunger in our community. The new board members are Ricky Burroughs, Heather Hall, Tom Hasty, Jim Mastin, and Dr. Cynthia Nicholson.

These new board members join the Foodbank at a critical time, as the organization continues to address the increased demand for food assistance. Their diverse backgrounds, combined experience, and dedication to the community will be instrumental in advancing the Foodbank's mission of ensuring that everyone has access to nutritious food.

The new board members will participate in a comprehensive orientation program scheduled for Monday, September 25. This orientation will provide them with an in-depth understanding of the Foodbank's operations, goals, and the critical role they will play in the organization's ongoing mission to combat hunger in our community.

About the Foodbank

For more than 40 years, the Foodbank of Southeastern Virginia and the Eastern Shore has provided more than 380 million meals to those in our community who face hunger. Through our programs, facilities, and large network of community partners, we work to eliminate hunger daily. Our understanding of the need for a long-term solution has led to the creation of a refreshed strategic plan aimed at moving Hampton Roads closer to achieving the mission of eliminating hunger for those we serve—not only for the day, or for the week, but for a lifetime.
